

Revolting Recipes!

1. What was the name of the recipe?
2. Name any 3 of the ingredients you need.
3. Name 2 pieces of equipment required for this recipe.
4. Is this a recipe that someone would really make?
5. Who is this recipe meant for?
6. What would happen to someone if they ate these sandwiches?
7. Number each of the steps below in the correctly from 1 – 7.

Gently place the rats' eyeballs into the cauldron, one at a time. These will add texture and flavour to your sandwich filling.

Gather all your equipment and ingredients together. Remember to wash your hands before you start preparing and cooking!

Lastly, place the 2 slices of stale mouldy bread on a small serving plate. Use a small knife to spread the mixture between the slices.

Gently place the rats' eyeballs into the cauldron, one at a time. These will add texture and flavour to your sandwich filling.

Firstly, make sure you have the correct quantities of all the ingredients in advance. You will need to weigh the dandruff, sugar and toe nail clippings carefully.

Next, add the horse hair to the mixture and stir thoroughly for 3 minutes. (There should be no lumps present in the mixture).

Begin by pouring the pint of sour milk and the 501 grams of dandruff into the cauldron. Use a wooden spoon to gently mix these ingredients together.