P A C K A G E

(Once-off payment as per priced item on 1st appointments PLEASE)

"....In life we all want a big house and a fancy car but can't always afford it....So if you cannot afford the Package as a ONCE OFF in advance payment then rather go for the option above and pay as you receive each services."

R3150 - GET ME TEST READY PACKAGE

(6 Hours Training, normally 3x2hour sessions. For the individual who can drive a car with confidence and have plenty experience. Who just wants to get to know all the required aspects of the driver's test and practice those skills to be able to pass the test. Getting an e-Natis online date, assistance with the confirmation process at the DLTC. Also the actual test day and all services as explained above. Also a popular option for someone who perhaps went for the test at some point and was not successful and now want to recap and tone the skills to pass the driver's test.)

R4050 - I CAN DRIVE PACKAGE

(10 Hours Training. For the individual who can drive with ease but never done parkings or any of the K53 drivers test preparations. This will normally be split into 2x1 hour sessions followed by 4x2hour session to practice the parkings and fine tune the K53 observations and procedures for the road test. Getting an e-Natis online date, assistance with the confirmation process at the DLTC and then the actual test day and all services as explained above. Top Seller normally!!!)

R5150 - I CAN DRIVE A LITTLE BIT PACKAGE

(15 Hours Training. This package is for the individual that has been driving a little around the house or around very quiet areas and that lack still experience and skills and has never done parkings or any of the K53 drivers test preparations, still get very nervous with cars around them and not able to drive to the shopping centers or busy intersections. Normally 3-5 1 hour sessions and the rest 2 hour sessions for parkings and practicing the K53 observations and procedures for the road test. Getting an e-Natis online date, assistance with the confirmation process at the DLTC and then the actual test day and all services as explained above.)

R6200 - I CANNOT DRIVE PACKAGE

(20 Hours Training. This is for the individual that has never driven before or perhaps tried once or twice by starting the car and perhaps 1st and 2nd gear only, perhaps have driven with their parents with Automatic vehicles but just around the house and very quiet streets, basically a complete beginner. Normally 5-10 one hour sessions on the basics of driving and getting comfortable behind the wheel and introduction to traffic and intersections, as well as the application of K53 road observations from early stage and then moving over to 2 hour lessons for parkings once the person is relatively safe and comfortable to drive to the practice grounds. Getting an e-Natis online date, assistance with the confirmation process at the DLTC and then the actual test day and all services as explained above.)

R1350 - Starter Packages or Add-On

(6 hours training one can either begin with to get a better rate than paying per hour at R240p/h, or if you took a package and still need a little more time to get 100% test ready, then choose this option to ADD ON before you go for the test when you package hours ran out.)

R2200 - Training Only package or Add-On

(10 hours training to either start off with early in your introduction to driving and the whole driving school thing, or perhaps chose an "I CAN DRIVE PACKAGE "and found out I CAN NOT DRIVE SO WELLand just want to spend some more time on practicing all the aspects of the K53 drivers Test.)

DLTC (driver license testing centre) Fees are not included in any of our prices and need to be paid by the individual when they either confirm their booking at the DLTC or on the actual test day when getting issued with Learners or Temporary Drivers Permit. We have been running a very successful and professional driving school for the last 22 years, BUT can only do so with a big effort on a daily basis with an exceptional committed team of instructors and management team.

Please respect this and cancel any scheduled appointment with a notice of 24hours, otherwise we need to charge the fee to compensate for loss of income and duly respecting the time and level of productivity we aim for every day.
